Definicje oraz różnice między pojęciami:
asylum-seeker, refugee, illegal migrant, irregular migrant (Irregular Foreign Resident, Irregular Foreign Worker)

An asylum-seeker is someone whose request for sanctuary has yet to be processed. National asylum systems are in place to determine who qualifies for international protection. - UNHCR

Uchodźcy to ludzie uciekający konfliktu lub prześladowań. Są one definiowane i chronione prawem międzynarodowym i nie może być wydalony lub zwrócić się do sytuacji, w której ich życie i wolność są zagrożone. - UNHCR

“the presence on the territory of a Member State, of a third-country national who does not fulfil, or no longer fulfils the conditions of entry as set out in Article 5 of the Schengen Borders Code or other conditions for entry, stay or residence in that Member State”

The term ‘irregular migration’ typically refers to the cross-border flow of people who enter a country without that country’s legal permission to do so. In contrast, the term ‘irregular migrants’ typically refers to the stock of migrants in a country who are not entitled to reside there, either because they have never had a legal residence permit or because they have overstayed their time-limited permit. As explained below, it can also refer to migrants who are legally resident but breaching the conditions
