

Pursuing public insecurity? The new Italian migration law

Andrea De Petris

Università Telematica “Giustino Fortunato” and Accademia Diritto e Società Multiculturali – Sezione Immigrazione, Università della Tuscia – Viterbo

3.rd EMIGRO Conference – SGH Warsaw School of Economics, 26.03.2019

Aims and Contents of this Presentation

The Decree «Immigration and Safety»: a new approach to an old Matter?

The main elements of the new Decree

Critical Matters

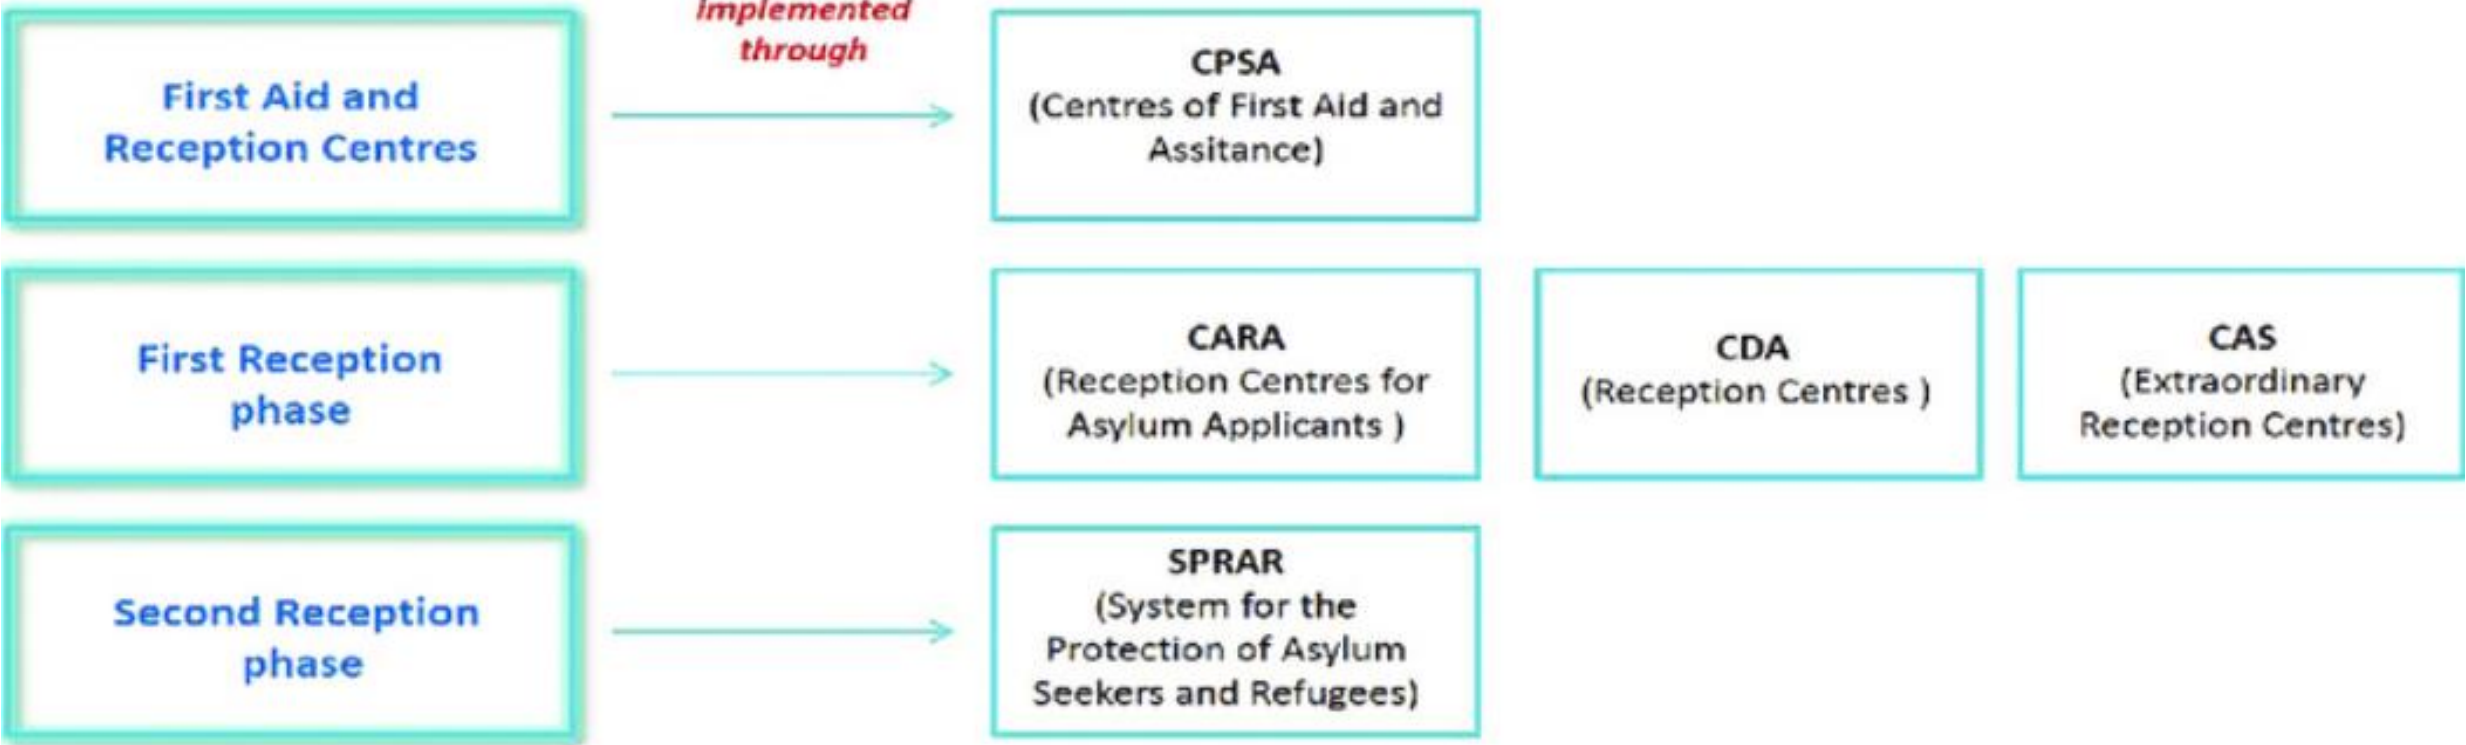

Conclusions: Intentional insecurity?

Migrants landed on Italian shores 2017 - 2019

Number of migrants landed from 1 January 2019 to 22 March 2019, compared with the data for the same period of years 2017 (-98,08%) and 2018 (-93,54%). Source: Ministry of Interiors

Italian Reception System

Main Contents of the new Decree

Abolition of humanitarian protection

Extension of detention in the CPR (Permanence for Repatriation Centers) – from 90 to maximum 180 days

More funds for forced repatriation, less for voluntary repatriation

Revocation or denial of international protection (wider list of crimes involving revocation of refugee status or subsidiary protection)

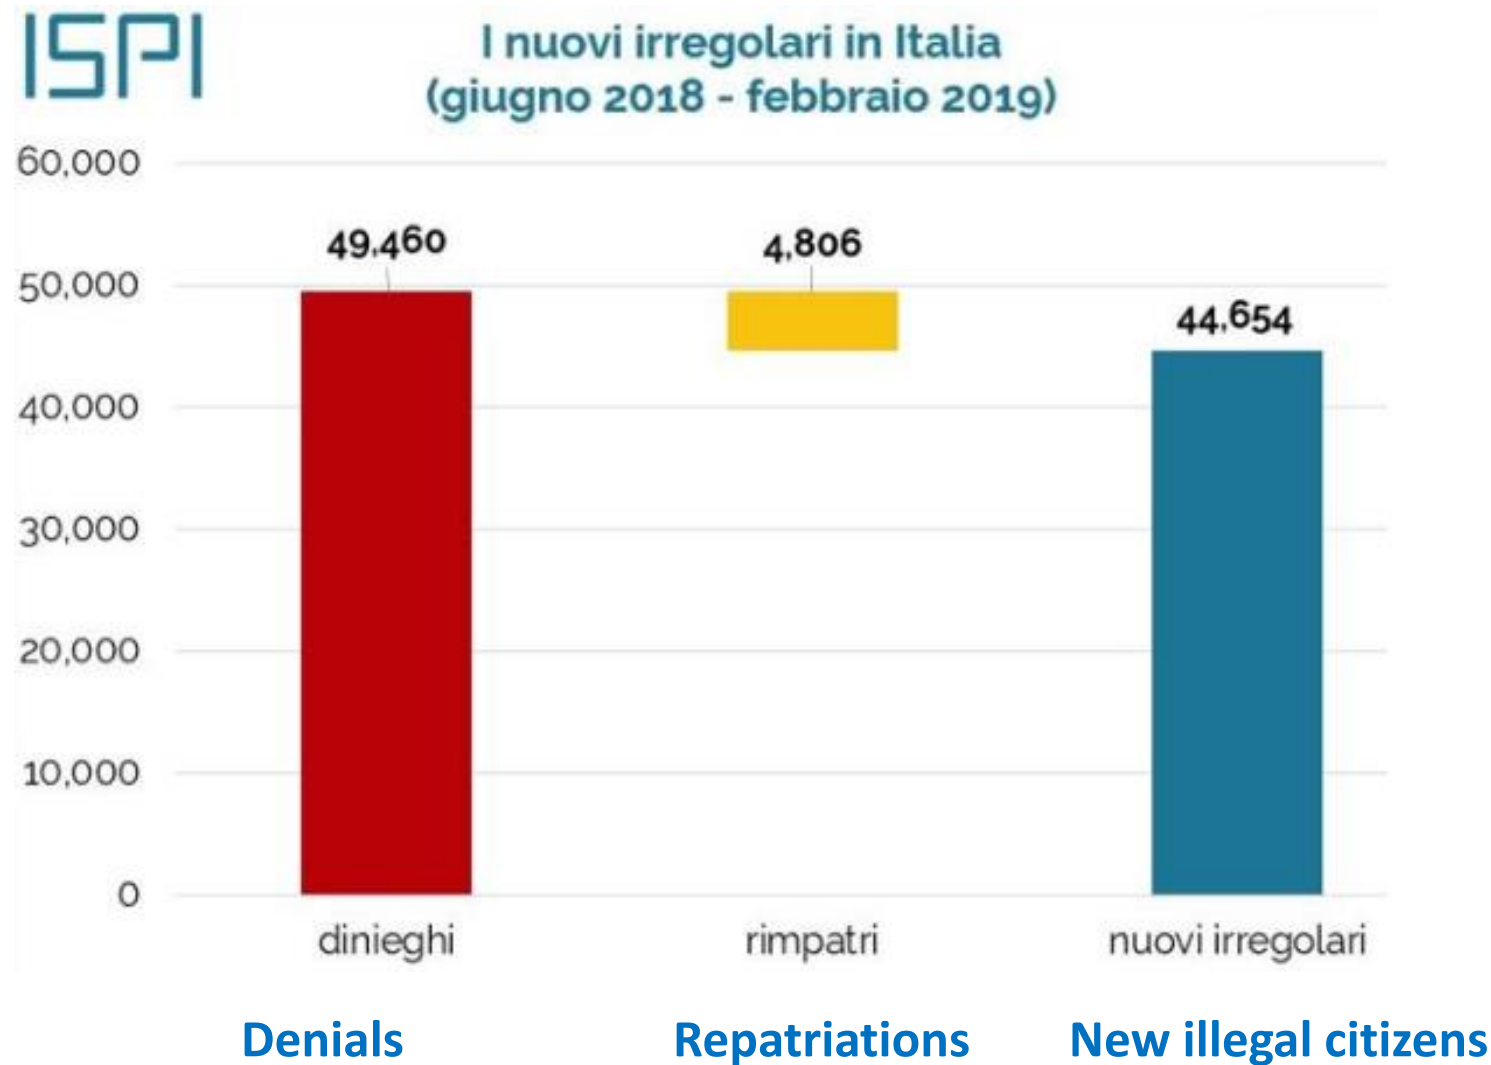

Accelerated procedure before the territorial commission

Restriction of the reception system

Exclusion from the register of asylum seekers

Withdrawal of citizenship

New illegal citizens in Italy (June 2018 – February 2019)

Thank You!

An overcrowded inflatable boat with Syrian refugees drifts in the Aegean sea between Turkey and Greece after its motor broke down off the Greek island of Kos. (Yannis Behrakis, Thomson Reuters - August 11, 2015 – Pulitzer Price Winner)